"Women's right to safe, legal and accessible abortion and birth control hangs by a thread," said [insert name of campus group leader] President of the [insert name of campus group]. "Just one more ultraconservative justice on the U.S. Supreme Court could overturn Roe v. Wade for decades. [Insert name of campus] student activists are determined to help keep that from happening. We're organizing women's rights supporters to travel to the nation's capitol with us to march for reproductive freedom."

The nation's leading women's rights groups have joined forces to organize a historic march on Washington—the first massive demonstration for abortion rights in over a decade. Organized by the Feminist Majority, NARAL Pro-Choice America, the National Organization for Women (NOW), and Planned Parenthood Federation of America, Save Women's Lives: March for Freedom of Choice will bring women's right supporters from around the country to the nation's capitol on April 25, 2004.

The [insert name of campus group] is organizing transportation to the March. Buses will leave from [insert city] on [insert day] at [insert time]. To purchase tickets, contact [insert name] at [insert number].
